Day 1 – Friday, 06 November 2026
Arrive Singapore

D

Welcome to Singapore!

Upon arrival at Singapore Changi Airport today, we are welcome by a local Tour Manager and Driver who will accompany us to our coach before transferring us to the hotel.

We'll check into our rooms and have some time at leisure before meeting for a Welcome Dinner.

Accommodation: Rendezvous Hotel Singapore - 4 Star - or similar (3 nights)

Please check with reservations for the Airport Transfer time, before booking your flight. There will only be one group transfer.

Day 2 – Saturday, 07 November 2026
Singapore

B-L

Singapore is one of Asia's most electric cities with astounding skyscrapers, a multi-cultural population, historic architecture, stunning gardens and vibrant way of life.

Following breakfast this morning we'll get to know it better on a city tour, beginning with phenomenal panoramic views of the city from Singapore's most iconic building - Marina Bay Sands.

We'll continue on through the Civic District to Merlion Park - dominated by its iconic fountain, a mythical creature with the head of a lion and body of a fish. Then it's on to explore Thian Hock Temple, a grand monument belonging to the Chinese sea goddess Mazu.

Next experience the beautiful National Orchid Garden; and make a stop in Little India - brimming with the unique scent mixture of joss sticks, jasmine and spices.

After enjoying lunch together we return to the hotel for an afternoon and evening at leisure.

Day 3 – Sunday, 08 November 2026
Singapore

B-D

Enjoy a relaxed breakfast and full day at leisure. Spend more time in the bustling city centre, have some retail therapy or perhaps a visit to the National Museum of Singapore.

If you fancy spending the day at a slower pace, you could visit the beautiful Gardens by the Bay, a nature park spanning 250 acres in the central region of the city, home to over 1.5 million plants and flowers, with lots of fabulous photo opportunities.

We will come back together this evening for dinner.

other than the included meals, all activities/transport today is at own expense*

Day 4 – Monday, 09 November 2026
Singapore - Malacca

B-L

We check out and board the coach this morning after breakfast and journey to Malaysia's third-smallest state, Malacca, rich in cultural heritage following the colonial rule of the Portuguese, Dutch and English.

We sit back and relax on a boat cruise along the stunning Malacca River this afternoon, a modern waterway providing great views of the city and its flourishing gardens, from a different perspective.

After checking into our hotel we have the evening at leisure.

Accommodation: Holiday Inn Melaka - 4 Star - or similar (1 night)

Day 5 – Tuesday, 10 November 2026
Malacca – Kuala Lumpur

B-D

After breakfast we get to know Malacca City in more depth today on a city tour.

We'll head to the base of Bukit Cina for a view of the Sultan's well. We pass the Portuguese fortress of Porta de Santiago, St Paul's Church, and the 'Red Square' of Dutch administrative buildings.

Baba Nyonya Heritage Museum is next, dedicated to the local history of the Chinese Malay people before finally, we visit the Cheng Hoon Teng Temple, Malaysia's oldest Chinese temple, located along famous Jonker Street, a vibrant area, which became a thriving business street during the 17th century.

This afternoon we drive to Kuala Lumpur, check into our accommodation and have time to freshen up before we meet for dinner.

Accommodation: Pullman Kuala Lumpur City Centre - 5 Star - or similar (2 nights)

Day 6 – Wednesday, 11 November 2026
Kuala Lumpur

B-L

Following breakfast this morning we start with an exciting tour of Kuala Lumpur, the vibrant capital of Malaysia with its modern skyline.

We make a photostop at the iconic Petronas Twin Towers reaching for the sky at 451.9 metres tall. There are many other highlights that Kuala Lumpur has to offer too, including the fascinating Chinatown district and modern Parliament House.

We'll stop at the War Memorial, New King's Palace - with 22 distinctive domes - and Federal Court. We drive past the Masjid Negara, Malaysia's national mosque set among 13 acres of landscaped gardens.

Returning to the hotel, the remainder of the day and evening is free to spend as you wish.

Day 7 – Thursday, 12 November 2026
Kuala Lumpur – Cameron Highlands

B-D

Check out after breakfast and board the coach as we leave for the lush green Cameron Highlands in Pahang, where 19th-century English colonial officers found cool sanctuary from the humidity of the lowlands.

Here we find quaint villages, tea plantations and lovely colonial architecture.

We visit the BOH Tea Plantation where slopes are filled with unending tea plants. Discover the plantation's history, founded in 1855, and learn about the harvesting and production process. Spend time relaxing in the café with breathtaking panoramic views whilst you sip a delicious cup of BOH tea.

We'll then travel to Kea Farm Market. This market offers a chance to experience an authentic roadside farmers market. You may find fresh produce like strawberries, bi-colored sweet corn, and greens. There are also vendors selling cooked food and snacks like steamed sweet potatoes.

Arriving at our accommodation for the night, we'll check in and freshen up before coming together for dinner.

Accommodation: Strawberry Park Resort - 4 Star - or similar (1 night)

Day 8 – Friday, 13 November 2026
Cameron Highlands – Taiping - Penang

B-L

Following breakfast we journey from the scenic Cameron Highlands to Taiping, Perak's state capital city, where many historical buildings and heritage landmarks hark back to the colonial era.

At the British Commonwealth War Memorial, the tranquillity of the stunning Lake Gardens is perfect as you stroll around the enchanting lakes, pretty ponds and flourishing array of tropical plants.

We continue to Bukit Merah, for a journey by boat to its Orang-Utan Island at Semanggol, an Orang-Utan rehabilitation and educational centre located on a jungle island of 4,000 hectares, allowing this endangered species to roam freely. Our knowledgeable guide will tell us all about them, as we view the gorgeous baby Orang-Utans in the quarantine area. Then, we walk through a 200-metre viewing tunnel to observe these primates in their natural habitat.

After this wonderful experience, we continue on to Penang check into our hotel and have the evening at leisure.

Accommodation: Parkroyal Penang - 5 Star - or similar (3 nights)

Day 9 – Saturday, 14 November 2026
Penang

B-L

Known as the Pearl of the Orient, we begin our exploration of cosmopolitan Penang after breakfast, known for soft sandy beaches and as the food capital of Malaysia. We'll discover the popular seafront and water villages of Chinese clan houses.

And a stroll along the 'Street of Harmony', paves the way to the Goddess of Mercy Temple, with dragon-entwined pillars intricately carved from green stone.

We also visit the Penang State Museum and Gallery and the incredible gold-plated Reclining Buddha Temple, sitting blissfully within a serene Thai temple.

Returning to the hotel we have the afternoon and evening at leisure.

Day 10 – Sunday, 15 November 2026
Penang

B-D

Today is full day at leisure to explore more of Penang, or simply relax on the beach.

Perhaps enjoy lunch* at one of the beachfront restaurants, accompanied by the sea's hypnotising soundtrack.

We will come together this evening for a Farewell Dinner.

other than the included meals, all activities/transport today is at own expense*

Day 11 – Monday, 16 November 2026
Depart Penang

B-L

Enjoy a final breakfast this morning and a relaxed day before we are transferred late afternoon to the Penang airport.

Please check with reservations for the Airport Transfer time, before booking your flight. There will only be one group transfer.
